

Introducing OrganizeTube - The Easiest Way to Search, Browse, Organize and Play Online Videos

New app for creating playlists with videos from the world's biggest video platforms

BRNO, Czech Republic – July 1, 2015 – OrganizeTube, the first online organizer and video player for major video platforms, lets you personalize your online video playing experience. Love watching videos but get lost in creating playlists for each video platform? Want to create thematic playlists to save and share with friends? With one app, OrganizeTube brings you all the videos from YouTube, Vimeo and DailyMotion in one place.

OrganizeTube, available today as a free app in the Apple Store – iPhone and iPad – and Google Play for Android smartphones and tablets, gives you the freedom and power to:

Save and Organize Videos

One tap and your favorite videos are saved for later viewing. Easily organize your favorite videos into playlists and group them using tags.

Enjoy a seamless experience

Browse the web and your social media timelines and easily drag and drop any video link into your active playlist without any interruptions.

Create thematic, personalized playlists

Create, curate and share playlists based on a theme. Add backgrounds and cover photos to your playlists to personalize them.

Discover new content

Add users to your feeds and easily watch the videos they upload and subscribe to.

Socialize with video

Share video playlists across all social media platforms and enjoy countless hours of fun with your friends and followers.

“I often found myself wishing for a way to gather all my favorite videos in one place. I tried bookmarking them but, somehow, it wasn't enough,” said Vladimir Sedlarik, CEO, OrganizeTube. “OrganizeTube does much more than save your videos into playlists; it lets you add cool backgrounds and cover photos to your playlists to make them more “YOU.”

With OrganizeTube’s friendly interface, searching or browsing through the major video platforms is easy. Adding videos to playlists is a simple drag and drop – all without interrupting video playback.
